A. Definitions and rules of interpretation which apply in this agreement

Tenancy: a reference in this agreement to the Tenancy is to the tenancy created by this agreement.

The Co-operative: a reference to Co-operative shall refer to the landlord by whom this tenancy is granted, and who is entitled to both the immediate reversion of the Tenancy and to receive any rent payable under this Tenancy.

General Meeting: a reference to General Meeting is a reference to a General Meeting of the Co-operative held in accordance with the rules governing the constitution of the Co-operative as they may be amended from time to time.

Rules: a reference to a Rule or Rules is a reference to a rule or rules in the rules governing the constitution of the Co-operative as they may be amended from time to time. For the avoidance of doubt, no section of this agreement is to be read in conjunction with any rule in that constitution unless it is specifically referred to in this agreement.

Notice: a reference in this agreement to a Notice refers to either the Co-operative informing the Tenant or the Tenant informing the Co-operative in writing, that is through paper letters, emails or recorded in the minutes of the Co-operative's general meetings.

Successor Acts: where reference is made to an Act, where that Act has been superseded by successive legislation, that reference shall be deemed to hold in line with the newer legislation.

Fully Mutual: means that the Rules restrict membership of the Co-operative to persons who are tenants or prospective tenants, and preclude the granting or assignment of tenancies to persons other than members of the Co-operative.

B.2 Information about the Co-operative

The Co-operative is a non profit seeking housing co-operative registered under the Industrial and Provident Societies Act 1965. The Tenant is a member of the Co-operative who agrees to purchase a share in the Co-operative by the payment of £1.00 to the Co-operative. The tenancy is granted by a Co-operative which is democratically controlled by its members. The rules of the Co-operative:

- a) restrict membership to persons who are tenants or prospective tenants of the Co-operative and
- b) preclude the granting or assignment of tenancies to persons other than members.

The Co-operative is therefore a fully mutual co-operative housing association as defined by section 1 (2) of the Housing Associations Act 1985 and section 5 (2) of the Housing Act 1985. The Tenancy granted by this agreement is therefore not an assured tenancy by virtue of Paragraph 12 of Schedule 1 to the Housing Act 1988.

The Co-operative leases the Property from Leeds Federated Housing Association Limited.

B.3 Accommodation provided

This agreement sets out that in exchange for the payment of rent, the Co-operative will let to the Tenant part of the Property, namely (please tick the box which applies):

the room located at ; or the room known as ; or that part of the Property described at Schedule 1 for the Tenant's exclusive use. This shall be in the context of this agreement referred to as “the Accommodation”.

B.4 Communal Areas

The Co-operative will also provide the Tenant, at no extra cost, access to additional facilities such that the Tenant has space for cooking and dining, personal washing, laundry, and living space. This will be provided on a non-exclusive basis and to be shared with others, and this agreement grants the Tenant non-exclusive access to (please tick the box which applies):

all parts of the Property that are not granted on an exclusive basis to others; or space as described at Schedule 2,

In the context of this agreement this shall be referred to as “the Communal Areas”. The right to access and use of Communal Areas is included in the rent.

B.5 Services

B.5.1 Services included

- a) The Co-operative, and not the Tenant, is liable for the payment of Council Tax on the Property.
- b) In addition, the following services are provided by the Co-operative and included in the rent (place a cross in the boxes which apply, IF any):

- Water and sewage charges
- Gas

- Other charges included (please state):

The Tenant accepts that a General Meeting of the Co-operative can remove the costs of the services listed in b) of this section from coverage by the rental income, and agrees to meet any extra payments incurred that they would become liable for as Additional Services (as in B.5.2) or on an individual basis.

B.5.2 Additional services

- a) The tenant is liable, on a joint and several liability basis, with the other tenants living in the Property, for the cost of any services (including utilities, phone calls, etc.) supplied at the Property, except for those included in the payment of rent as set out in Section B.5.1. Services not included in the Rent are referred to in the context of this agreement as “Additional Services”.
- b) The Tenant agrees to take responsibility for the cost of Additional Services as a private matter organised independently amongst all tenants living in the Property, unless the Co-operative has agreed at a General Meeting to pay for Additional Services, in which case the Tenant agrees to reimburse the Co-op in a manner determined by the General Meeting.

B.5.3 Reconnection charges

Where any additional service supplied to the property has been disconnected as a result of the Tenant’s failure to pay for the cost of the service according to procedures set out in section B.5.2, any reconnection charge will be payable by the Tenant.

B.6 Duration of Tenancy

Starting from (the Commencement Date), the Co-op will provide the Accommodation, the Communal Areas and Services (as detailed in sections B.3, B.4 and B.5) to the Tenant (please tick the box which applies) for a minimum term of months, and following the term (if any):

on a monthly rolling basis, until ended by either the Co-op or the Tenant (under the rule described in sections G.1 and G.2) on a weekly rolling basis, until ended by either the Co-op or the Tenant (under the rule described in sections G.1 and G.2)

B.7 Rent

B.7.1 Initial Rent

The amount of rent payable under this agreement will be £ per week calendar month, pro rata, until (please tick the box which applies):

a change in the Consumer Price Index; or a change in the amount of Local Housing Allowance claimable regarding the Accommodation, unless the Co-operative agrees at a General Meeting on another level of rent increase, for which the Tenant must have had at least a 28 days Notice. The amount of Rent payable by the Tenant, after increase, must be stated in the minutes of the General Meeting at which the increase was agreed.

In the context of this agreement, the rent payable from the Rent Review Date is referred to as “the Rent”.

- a) The Tenant has full right to decorate the Accommodation according to personal taste as long as it complies with the obligations set out above in sections D1.6 and D1.7 and as long as the Co-operative is informed at a general meeting of the Tenant doing so prior to decorating. When the Co-operative is notified of the decorating, it may require the Tenant to redecorate the Accommodation at the end of the Tenancy.
- b) The Tenant has the right to decorate the Communal Areas if and only if notice to do so was issued to and agreed by the Co-operative.

E.2 Improvements

The Tenant may make improvements, alterations and additions to the Property (including external decoration) and may make additions to, or alterations in, the Co-operative's installations, fixtures and fittings, provided that the Tenant has first obtained the minuted approval of the Co-operative at a General Meeting and all other necessary approvals, (for example, where planning permission or building regulations approval is required). The Co-operative will not unreasonably withhold its consent to a request to make improvements, but may make it conditional upon the work being carried out to a specified standard. Failure to comply with the Co-operative conditions may be treated as a breach of the Tenant's obligations under this Tenancy.

E.3 Complaints

If the Tenant feels that the Co-operative has broken this agreement or not performed any obligation contained in it, the Tenant should in the first instance approach the Co-operative through any established mechanism. Failing this, a complaint at a General Meeting of the Co-operative, or in writing may be made, giving sufficient details of the breach or non-performance.

F. The Co-operative's additional rights

F.1 Temporary exclusion

In the event of the Tenant behaving in a manner which constitutes gross misconduct, the Co-operative may in accordance with the procedure in its rules temporarily exclude the Tenant from the Accommodation and/or Communal Areas, pending resolution of the issue via the Co-operative's dispute process.

For the purposes of clarity, temporary exclusion does not mean the Tenancy of the individual concerned has been ended.

G. Termination of Tenancy

G.1 Termination by the Co-operative

The Co-operative may terminate the Tenancy at any time by issuing a Notice To Quit, in accordance with Section 5 of the Protection from Eviction Act 1977., The notice period will be a minimum of one month or four weeks, dependent upon whether the Tenancy is monthly or weekly rolling. At the end of the notice period the Tenancy ends and the Tenant becomes a trespasser if they remain in the Accommodation.

During the minimum term (if applicable) the Co-operative can only terminate the Tenancy if:

- a) The Tenant has breached one of the conditions in this agreement (including but not limited to arrears of rent); or
- b) The Tenant's membership of the Co-operative has been ended in accordance with the Rules

G.2 Termination by the Tenant

The Tenant may terminate their Tenancy by informing a General Meeting of the Co-operative or the Co-operative Secretary (or appropriate officer) with days month Notice; once accepted, such Notice is irreversible.
